Rugs help define areas, especially in social spaces.

We highly recommend placing carpets big enough as to cover at minimum the sofa length.

CIRCULAR

Circular or irregular rugs are a great solution for creating relaxing, intimate moments, such as reading.

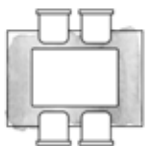

DINNING ROOM

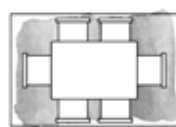

The size of the rug should be proportional to the size of the table and ideally a little larger so that the back legs of the chairs do not protrude from the rug once seated.

Keep in mind that a seated person occupies approximately 75 cm. Therefore, the rug should be approximately 1 m larger than the table on each side.
